

The thought of the "Do Not Call" list being overturned is mind-boggling. This would mean that ultimately business wins and consumers lose. I believe that families are desperately trying to win back their privacy and change their quality of life. Please put us first and don't let this happen.